

REFERENCE: The Australian Tuesday 21st January 2003 Page 29

Cargo Culture

FLINDERS Ports has overcome the effect of successive drought years to post a 12.5 per cent gain in cargo tonnage through its seven South Australian ports.

The record 16.7 million tonnes in the 2001-02 financial year included increased container trade, 6.5 million tonnes of grain and rising limestone and cement volumes.