

REFERENCE: The Australian, Wednesday 15th February 2006, Page 022

Global Business Brief - Infrastructure

SOUTH Australia's economy will benefit from the widening of its main shipping channel at Outer Harbor. It could save $500 million in freight, safety, environment and road maintenance costs over 20 years and $1.9 billion more generally.