

REFERENCE: The Advertiser, Thursday 20th June 2007, Page 011

Shipping service to U.S.

SOUTH Australian exporters and importers soon will have access to a fortnightly shipping service to the U.S.

Flinders Ports general manager of business development Stewart Lammin yesterday said a Vessel Sharing Agreement service to and from the U.S. West Coast would recommence next month.

Leading lines, Hamburg Sud, Hapag-Lloyd and Maersk Line, would provide the service.